

Dangerous Goods Services Pty Ltd

Training and Equipment Supplies

DANGEROUS GOODS LICENSING PRE-COURSE LITERACY AND NUMERACY ASSESSMENT.

Simple Literacy and Numeracy Test these questions are based on the dangerous goods licensing assessment.

This assessment does NOT lead to a qualification but is designed to help identify the literacy and numeracy requirements for obtaining a Dangerous Goods Licence. Please ask the assessor/trainer if you have problems understanding the questions. This will be explained to you in simpler terms.

The 15 examples are based on questions you may get in the licensing assessment. THERE ARE NO TRICK QUESTIONS.

LITERACY

Q1. Circle a noun in the following

1. The name of a thing, place or person
2. Describes a thing, place or person
3. Determines ownership of a thing, place or person
4. Always start with a capital letter for a thing, place or person

Answer:

Q2. What does the term Open Book indicate?

Answer:

Q3. What does the term 'LEGISLATION' mean?

Answer:

Q4. What do the following words mean?

Four

Fore

Q5. Define the word 'PLACARDING'

Answer:

Q6. What does 'ELECTRICAL CONTINUITY' mean?

Answer:

Q7. What is a jurisdiction?

Answer:

Q8. What does the term 'ACRONYM' mean?

Answer:

Q9. What do the initials mm, when used in measurement, represent?

Answer:

Q10. What does the term 'PPE' mean?

Answer:

NUMERACY

Q1. Express 75% as a fraction

Answer:

Q2. What is  $\frac{1}{2}$  when expressed as a percentage

Answer:

Q3. If you have a vapour space of 80% what percentage of product is in the container?

Answer:

Q4. What percentage is 15,000 litres of product in a 20,000 litre tank?

Answer:

Q5. Express 1300mm as metres

Answer:

END OF ASSESSMENT.

Discuss your answers with your trainer.